2017-2018 Dress Code Policy

Triumphant Life Christian Academy

2017-2018 Academic Year
REVISED DRESS CODE POLICY

The official dress code consists of:

- A polo of any color or a button up dress shirt, and
- Khaki pants of any color as well.
- Skirts and shorts are permitted in the warmer months,* but they must be knee-length.
- Dress shoes or athletic shoes (preferred)
- Hoodless long sleeve undershirts

Winter weather dress code:

- Boots for outdoor activities, with a change of shoes for indoors
- Snow pants

All of the clothing should be loose fitting, as we frequently engage in physical activities in homeroom and recess, but not too large to the point of being baggy or sagging. A change of clothes is strongly recommended for gym class, however it will not, in most cases, limit participation. The students will need appropriate footwear for impromptu outdoor classes and possible walks through wooded areas (i.e. science class). All other dress code permissions are subject to each individual teacher's discretion.

*Warmer months = before the 1st week of November and after the 1st week of April

The following items shall be prohibited at all times:

- Sandals or flip flops
- Hats, hoodies, sweaters, and coats must be hung up upon entering the building.
- Body art, tattoos, and body jewelry will not be permitted, with the exception of earrings for girls.
- Jeans, sweat pants, yoga pants (except during gym class)
- Wallet/watch chains

The expectations to be in dress code will be consistent, and it will be the students' responsibility to be sure they are in dress code. If the student is not in dress code, we will consider them verbally warned after the first day of classes and will apply disciplinary action.
